

REPORT

OF

THE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE,

COMMUNICATING,

In obedience to law, a detailed statement of the payments from the contingent fund of the Senate, during the year ending November 30, 1856.

DECEMBER 30, 1856.—Read, ordered to lie on the table and be printed.

OFFICE SECRETARY OF THE SENATE,
December 30, 1856.

The Secretary of the Senate has the honor to report a detailed statement, prepared in obedience to the 20th section of the act of 26th August, 1842, of the payments from the contingent fund of the Senate, during the year ending 30th November, 1856; the payments having been approved and passed by the committee to audit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate.

The amounts of the several appropriations for the contingent expenses of the Senate, unexpended at the close of the year above mentioned, were:

For binding.....	$35,661 22
For lithographing and engraving.....	42,187 73
For books.....	6,762 16
For stationery.....	599 63
For newspapers.....	2,715 37
For Congressional Globe and binding the same.....	39,237 00
For reporting proceedings.....	4,594 69
For clerks of committees, pages, police, horses and car-ryalls.....	19,967 13
For expenses of select committees.....	588 62
For miscellaneous items.....	20,890 98

Of these balances, $2,405 53 were then in the hands of the Treasurer of the United States, subject to draft, and $170,799 in the treasury.

Respectfully submitted.

ASBURY DICKINS,
Secretary of the Senate.

Hon. JESSE D. BRIGHT,
President of the Senate pro tempore.

A detailed statement from the contingent fund of the Senate, approved and passed by the committee to audit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, during the year ending November 30, 1856.
